

ALC ANNUAL FORUM 09 A TIME FOR ACTION

12 AND 13 FEBRUARY 2009, SOFITEL ON COLLINS MELBOURNE

The 7th ALC Annual Forum will be held in Melbourne on 12 and 13 February and is the premier event for T&L leaders and decision maker's to join together to set the direction for the industry in 2009.

Thursday, 12 February

- » Site visit to Westgate Ports
- » T&L Industry Reception at the Melbourne Cricket Ground

Friday, 13 February

- » ALC Annual Forum 2009

Don't miss your chance to be part of the ALC Annual Forum 2009
Early Bird rates close 12 January!! Click here to register online

The Australian Logistics Council is the national umbrella body for freight across the entire supply chain in Australia, covering the four transport modes for both domestic and international logistics.

ALC is also a partnership between all Australian Governments and the senior leaders of logistics including customers, users, suppliers, industry peak bodies, the State-based Freight Councils, senior government officials, regulators and industry specialists.

CONFIRMED KEY INDUSTRY AND POLITICAL LEADERS INCLUDE:

- » THE HON. ANTHONY ALBANESE MP - Federal Minister Infrastructure, Transport, Regional Development & Local Government
- » THE HON. TIM PALLAS MP - VIC State Minister For Roads & Ports
- » PAUL LITTLE - Managing Director, Toll Holdings
- » NICK DIMOPOULOS - Chief Executive, NTC
- » TONY SHELDON - Federal Secretary, TWU

The ALC Annual Forum is your chance to have your say and provide input into the future of T&L. It is also a unique opportunity to network with senior leaders from the T&L industry.

DON'T miss your opportunity to attend! Click here to register online.

We are sure you have other colleagues that may want to attend so please send this on!

Media Partners

FOR MORE INFORMATION ON THE PROGRAM AND HOW TO REGISTER, VISIT WWW.AUSTLOGISTICS.COM.AU

unsubscribe