

CIPS Examinations in Australasia

CIPS qualifications require candidates to sit examinations in order to complete each unit and level of study. The next round of CIPS examinations will be held during the third week of May 2011. You may enter for as many units as you wish in one sitting.

Bookings

You can now book your examination online. Visit the Study & Qualify section at www.cipsa.com.au for full details of the examination procedure and to book online.

May 2011 examination closing dates

Earlybird entries 11 February 2011

Standard entries 18 March 2011

Australian and New Zealand examination centres

You are able to sit your exams at the following CIPS exam centres:

NSW

Albury Local Examinations Centre

ACT

Australian Catholic University – Canberra

QLD

Supply Chain Management Education
Australia (SCMEA) – Brisbane
James Cook University – Cairns
CQ University – Mackay & Gladstone
Campus

SA

The University of Adelaide

NT

Charles Darwin University – Darwin

VIC

CIPS Australia – Melbourne
iGain Quality Learning Centre – Morwell

WA

Curtin University of Technology – Perth

NZ

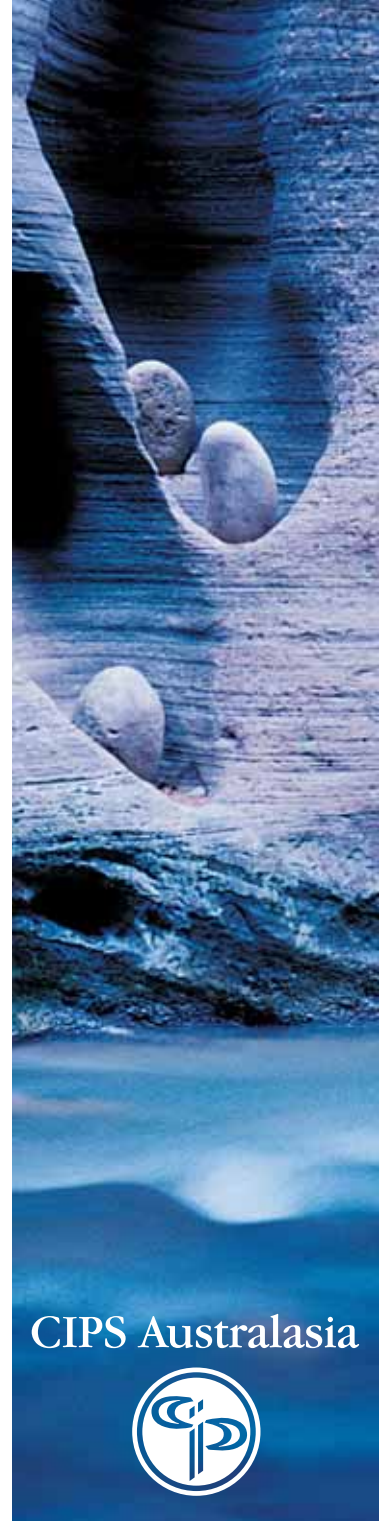

Massey University – Wellington
University of Otago – Dunedin
University of Auckland
University of Canterbury – Christchurch
Western University of Technology
Taranaki – New Plymouth

FIJI

University of South Pacific – Suva

PNG

Institute of Public Administration
– Port Moresby

CIPS Australasia

If you have any enquiries, please contact the CIPS Australia Education Manager on +61 3 9629 6000 or on 1300 765 142 for examination details and venue fees.