Mr Bob Hastings - Deputy Commissioner Victoria Police

The Supply Chain and Logistics Council of Australia, promoter of 'Blaze-Aid', is very proud to announce a not to be missed event for all our industry partners and associations regarding the horrific events of the Victoria fires early this year.

Acting Deputy Commissioner of Police Mr. Bob Hastings will present on the emergency response and the enormous effort and logistical role that the Victorian Police have played in dealing with a disaster of these proportions, as well as the ongoing effects and rationalisations that will need consideration for our future.

Many of our organisations have contributed enormously to the infrastructure, people care and rebuilding efforts of the State and the Victoria Police so we encourage all to attend to begin to understand the many and varied issues associated with Emergency Logistics.
