

World Vision SEE Solutions

We see Social and Economic Empowerment

World Vision

World Vision is launching an innovative program that will help lift many more people out of poverty and into economic self-sufficiency. It's called SEE Solutions.

Hugh Jackman has committed to promote this program in Australia and around the world as a World Vision Ambassador.

At this breakfast, you will have a sneak preview of his recent trip to Africa with Tim Costello – an experience that moved and inspired Hugh to support SEE Solutions. Tim will share with you his journey with Hugh to Ethiopia and Cambodia, where they saw how focused solutions can change lives.

Also speaking will be Rudo Kwaramba, the National Director of World Vision Uganda. Rudo was the key character in Millionaire's Mission, a UK television series that recently aired on the ABC. This series followed the story of a group of self-starters, seeking to apply their business skills and entrepreneurial spirit to improve the living standards of a rural Ugandan community.

You'll be the first in Australia to hear about SEE Solutions, and will have the opportunity to get involved in this ground-breaking initiative, should you wish to do so.

We do hope to see you there.
